

General Education Development (GED)

Rhode Island Department of Children, Youth and Families
Division of Juvenile Correctional Services: Training School

Policy: 1200.1731

Effective Date: June 14, 2004

Revised Date: July 7, 2014

Version: 3

The Education Program provides residents with the opportunity to obtain an alternative diploma whenever appropriate. The High School Equivalency Diploma Program, also known as General Education Development (GED), is awarded to residents who successfully complete testing in conformance with RI Department of Elementary and Secondary Education regulations.

Related Procedure

General Education Development \(GED\)

General Education Development (GED)

Procedure from Policy 1200.1731: General Education Development (GED)

- A. Eligible residents are assessed for enrollment in the General Education Development (GED) Program. The assessment determines the resident's desire and ability to obtain a GED.
- B. Residents meet the criteria established by the RI Department of Elementary and Secondary Education to participate in GED programming and to receive a passing score.
- C. The GED Program is provided at no cost to residents.
- D. Paragraphs A - C are consistent with American Correctional Association Standards 3-JTS-5D-02; 3-JTS-5D-03; 3-JTS-5D-04; 3-JTS-5D-06; 3-JTS-5D-07 and 3-JTS-5D-08.